PREFATORY NOTE.

THIS volume contains the materials that the late Dr. Cramond left in MS. in a condition almost ready for publication, and has been edited in accordance with what seems to have been Dr. Cramond's plan of the work. Among Dr. Cramond's papers no lists of ministers and schoolmasters were found, and the lists given in this volume have been compiled by me. Dr. Cramond had compiled a list of Provosts from 1670 to 1800, but I am responsible for the names prior to 1670. No materials were discovered that evidently related to the Introduction mentioned by Dr. Cramond in the Preface to the first volume, nor any notes of those to whom his obligations were due, except that Mr. Stewart, Town Clerk, had carefully revised the Extracts from the Town Council Minutes in proof. I desire to express my thanks, for their courtesy and aid, to the Town Clerk (Mr. Hugh Stewart), and his depute (Mr. A. G. Cockburn), the Sheriff Clerk (Mr. John Foster), and his depute (Mr. James H. Kissach), the Session Clerks (Mr. R. B. Gordon, and Mr. Peter Dow, M.A.), Miss Mitchell, Librarian, Elgin Public Library, and Professor Cooper, Glasgow. From the Secretary of the Club I have received invaluable advice and assistance

Sir George A. Cooper has generously repeated his handsome donation towards the illustrations. To the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland, and Mr. W. Rae Macdonald, the Club are indebted for the use of the blocks of the illustrations on pp. 212, 244 of the first volume. The Proprietors of "The Northern Scot," through Mr. R. G. Millar, editor, have kindly granted the use of seven blocks of illustrations that appeared in their newspaper in 1890. Mr. J. D. Yeadon, bookseller, Elgin, has given permission to use the block of Thunderton House, and Mr. J. W. Mackie, accountant, Elgin, has granted the use of several photographs taken by him.

NOTES ON ILLUSTRATIONS IN FIRST VOLUME.

P. 416. The sundial on the top of the shaft of the Little Cross bears the date 1733. The house with the arcades has on the pediments of the upper windows the date 1694 and the letters I D, M I, being the initials of John Duncan and Margaret Innes, his wife.

P. 504. The buildings shown in this illustration have given place to modern structures, with the exception of the tower, which has been preserved. A sketch of the arms on the tower is given on p. 212 of the first volume, and shows the arms of Leslie, Earl of Rothes, enclosed by the letters A L, I B, and the date 1634. The same date appears under the letters A L on the pediment of the top window. The letters are the initials of Alexander Leslie, merchant in Elgin, and Jean Bonyman, his wife. The land on which the house with the arcades stood was purchased in 1679 by John Winchester, merchant in Elgin, whose wife's name was Janet Maver.

* For several years the session clerk used no fixed heading for giving the date and place of meeting, the names of the members present, and the name of the court. The date is frequently omitted, but an approximate date is generally found from the minutes immediately preceding and following. The place is often omitted, and, when given, is generally "the queir of the parochie kirk." The names of the members present are often omitted, and, when given, are arranged in no fixed order. It was only after several years that the minister's name was always given first, and many meetings, at which ordinary business was transacted, were held without a minister. The members of the Town Council were members of the court with the ordinary elders and deacons. The name of the court is found in various forms side by side. The most frequent forms are: "the assemblie of the minister and eldaris," "the assemblie of the eldaris and minister," "the assemblie of the eldarschip," and "the assemblie of the eldaris." The following forms also occur: "the assemblie of the kirk (or parochie kirk) of Elgin," "the eldarschip of Elgin," "the eldaris of Elgin," "the sessioun haldin." A common heading was: "in presence of," preceded by the date and followed by the names of the members present. Afterwards the prevailing heading was: "convenit," preceded by date and place and followed by the names of the minister and the elders present.

This "Short Catechism" is taken from a MS. copy preserved, in the cover of one of the old Kirk Session registers, among some other loose papers, the oldest of which is of date 1578. The MS. now consists of two large sheets of paper, each written only on one side, but was probably originally one large sheet, folded once and written on the second and third pages so that the whole catechism would be exposed at one view. The edges of the paper are now badly torn, and the creases considerably worn and frayed, so that some words are lost or illegible (and are above conjecturally supplied in square brackets), but otherwise the text of the catechism is complete. On the back of one of the sheets are three long columns of names, perhaps a record of those either present at or absent from the catechisings, and in the central column two dates are given, the first, "1 Feb., 1597," at the top, and the second, "9 Februar," near the middle of the column. The MS. is, in all likelihood, the identical copy used by Robert Leslie, who was reader and session clerk at the end of the sixteenth and beginning of the seventeenth centuries, when he catechised the young within the church of St. Giles. The writing is bold and large, which is perhaps not to be wondered at, seeing the Session allowed only a plack candle at the evening prayers in 1604, though ten years later, in the time of Leslie's successor, George Douglas, they showed their generosity by allowing four candles on catechising nights, one, however, being still considered sufficient at the ordinary evening prayers. The observations that follow are written by Professor Cooper.

This Catechism is a free translation, made perhaps by Mr. Leslie himself, into the English (or Scots) of the Sixteenth Century from the Latin Summula Catechismi given by Dunlop (Collections of Confessions of Faith, &c., vol. ii., p. 138), and Bonar (Catechisms of the Scottish Reformation, pp. 288-93). Dunlop says of it:—"This is the little Catechism which has always been taught in the Grammar Schools of Scotland. It is said to be composed by Mr. Andrew Simpson, Author of the Latin Rudiments which begins Quum literarum consideratio, who was Master of the Grammar School of Perth before and in the time of the Reformation; and afterwards was the first Protestant Minister of Dunbar." The Summula influenced other Catechisms; traces of it may be seen in the "Fragment apparently by Mr. Robert Blair," in "The A. B. C. or a Catechisme for Yong Children, appoynted by Act of the Church and Councell for Scotland, 1644," and in "The New Catechisme according to the Forme of the Kirk of Scotland . . . set forth for the generall good of both Kingdomes, London, 1644" (Mitchell's Catechisms of the Second Reformation).

Simson had been schoolmaster of the ancient Grammar School of Perth for ten years before the Reformation, and it is said that he embraced the Reformed doctrines after perusing Sir David Lindsay's "The Book of the Monarchie." Among the Reformed clergy he was no friend to Royal or episcopal supremacy, though he married Violet Adamson, the sister of the Archbishop of St. Andrews. By this lady he became the father of five sons who became ministers, and of whom three, Patrick, Archibald and Alexander, attained high distinction. Later descendants included John Simson, Professor of Divinity at Glasgow, suspended for doubtful doctrine by the General Assembly of 1728, Robert Simson the eminent mathematician, and, in the female line, Patrick and George Gillespie, and the living historian, Mr. Andrew Lang. Perhaps there is no one in Scottish history who became the ancestor of so many famous divines and scholars, while by his Catechism and his Latin Rudiments he taught many more.

The chief variations from the Summula in this Elgin Catechism are here noted. Before "Q. What call ye the Word?" the Summula has "Q. In what manner doth he work it through the Word and Sacraments? A. He openeth our heart so that we believe God speaking in the Word and Sacraments." After "Q. What call ye the Word?" the Summula has "Q. How many parts be there of the Word of God? A. Two, The Law and the Gospel. Q. What is the Law? A. The Teaching of God, requiring of us our duty, and, forasmuch as we cannot pay, condemning us. Q. What is the Gospel? A. The Teaching [of God] offering Christ to us with all His benefits and our debt (duty) discharged by Him, and proclaiming us to be free." On the other hand, the Elgin Catechism inserts the word "worthily" in the Q. concerning the Sacraments, and Q. and A. which are not in the Summula. "Q. Why do you say 'worthily'? A. Because they that receive unworthily receive their own damnation." For the Elgin "Q. How many Sacraments are there?" the Summula has "Q. What are the Sacraments of the New Testament?", and it defines Baptism in terms closer to those with which we are familiar in the Shorter Catechism: "Baptism is the Sacrament of our ingrafting into Christ, and of [our] washing from our sins." Again, the Elgin Catechism, in dealing with the Lord's Supper, combines four Questions and Answers of the Summula as follows:—"Q. What is the Holy Supper? A. The Sacrament of our spiritual nourishment in Christ. Q. What help giveth the Holy Supper to our faith? A. It beareth witness that, just as by bread and wine our bodies are fed and made to grow, so our souls are nourished and strengthened unto life eternal by the body and blood of Christ crucified. Q. How are we nourished by the body and blood of Christ? A. While by faith we behold, and by the power of the Holy Ghost there present apply those things to ourselves. Q. How do we behold by faith, and apply to ourselves the body of Christ crucified? A. When we persuade ourselves that the Death and Crucifixion of Christ do no less belong to us than if we ourselves had been crucified for our sins. For this persuasion is of true faith."

February 25th.—No convention the last day becaus of Lues Gordon his incursion on the cuntrie.

March 11th.—Compeired the laird of Pluscardin and did ingenuoslie with signes of great sorrow and humilitie confess that he had joyned with that excommunicat traitor, James Graham, the publick enemie off this kirk and kingdom, and that he had subscribed Ja. Grahams band. To confess in the seat before the pulpit in the church of Elgin. Alexander Innes of Old Milns confessed he received a protection from Ja. Graham being sent in a commission from the Comittee off Murray to the said James Graham and so being in the enemies hands for saiftie off his lyff was forced to tak a protection from him, (2) that Ja. Grahams health was severall tymes drunken in his hous, (3) that he did frequently converse with the Marques of Huntley and his associatts and go to their camp being sent be seuerall gentlemen in the cuntrie for saiftie of ther lands. Posed concerning whether he did approv Ja. Grahams and Huntleys courses lawfull or unlawfull, he desyred continuation untill the next day. Robert Innes, son to Alex^r. Innes of Oldmills, confesses he published one of L. Lues Gordons orders in the kirk of Elgin. To mak his publick repentance in the kirk of Elgin. He said he did detest and abhor the wicked courses of Ja. Graham and Huntley and ther associatts.

March 18th. — Alexander Innes of Oldmills gives satisfaction. Alexander Steiven in Elgin is accused of informing the enemy where his neighbours goods were. Witnesses affirm that an Irishman called Mans said Alexander Steiven led them to Walter Mills booth and that he knew him by the pearl in his ey. A witness said a woman cam out off Rothes and told that Alexander Steiven had givin intelligence to L. Lues that som men off Spyny was in the toun and said farther that he and otheres wer evill nighbours to the toun. George Baxter, younger, Elgin, deponed that when he was prisoner in the tolbooth off Elgin Alexander Cummings man in Dundurcas said that Alexander Steiven did giv them frequent intelligence and particularlic that day that L. Lues cam upon Ballindalloch in Elgin and his company. Alexander Steiven being inquired if he caried any commission from any off the enemie to any in the hous of Spyny in tym off the troubles does confess that the old Lady Grant had directed him to speak to the Lady Ballindalloch to deal with her husband to quytt the hous off Spyny and reitir himself to sum vther place, glorifie God and confess his fault and she wold procure his peace, quhilk commission the said Alexander Steiven did carry be his own confession. He is referred to the ensuing assemblie of Murray.

August 26th.—Alexander Steiven is south and his process lyeth over till his hom coming.

January 20th.—Alexander Steiven is appointed to satisfy in the kirk of Elgin.

February 17th.—The ministers of Elgin reported that the trumpeter quha ravished the young damosell in Threipland in the parochin of Urquhart was condemned be an council off war and shott att the post in Elgin.

August 17th.—The common head delayed for tuentic dayes becaus off a mercat in Elgin.

February 15th.—The ministers of Elgin vndertook to deall with the magistratis off Elgin to change the Saturndayes mercat.

February 28th.—Pro re nata meiting becaus it wes reported that Pluscardin hade drawn to a heid and hade taken in the towne of Invernes. The brethren thought it most expedient that the nixt Lords day all of them out of the pulpit dissuade ther people from joyning with him.

November 14th.—Thomas Dunbar, Alexander Burnett and Patrick Gibson, parochiners of Elgin, acknowledge their guilt in taking charge in the late unlawfull ingadgement.

November 21st.—Visitation at Elgin. The said day Mr. William Clogie, elder, preached on his ordinar Matth. 8, 16. The moderator and remanent brethren being present, Mr. Murdo McKeinyec and Mr. Thomas Law, ministers of Elgin, delivered to the moderator a note of the names of the elders in the burgh and land of Elgin paroch as followeth: Mr. Johne Hay, provest of Elgin, Mr. Johne Dowglasse, Robert Hardie, bailyie, Andro Kay, Williame Winchester, Thomas Caldell, bailyie, Johne Chamber, notar publict, William Laing, bailyec, George Cumming, baillic, William Schoch, Jerome Spense, [etc., in all 19 elders for the town, 16 elders for landward, and 4 deacons], who being present were solemnlie sworne to declare the truth anent ther ministers carriage in lyff, doctrine and discipline according to the interrogatures to be moved to them by the moderator. The saids Mr. Murdo McKenzie and Mr. Thomas Law being remoued and the provest and bailyes of Elgin, Mr. Johne Dowglasse of Moristoun, Jerome Spens, John Hay of Knockawdie, Gilbert Innes in Blackhills being severallie and apart posed with sundrie quaeries relateing to ther personall and pastorall deportment in the diverse particulars mentioned in the preceding visitation, they gaue the saids ministers ane ample testimonie of pietie in ther lyff, eminent abilitie and fidelitie in ther calling, giveing thanks to the Lord in ther behalf and that he wes pleased to sett them over them in his work. The remanent elders being called in they homologate the said testimonie all in one voyce. The elders being remoued, the ministers being posed anent ther carriage in lyff and eldership they gaue them a gude testimonie and cheiffie commended the faithfull concurrence and assistance they hade of the magistrates of the toun of Elgin and required the elders in the landwart wold be more carefull in delateing scandalls and more inquisitorie in the families of ther quarters anent the care of familie worship and delate the deficientes in that necessarie and piouse dutie. The elders being called in, the saids elders in landward wer seriously exhorted as wes required.

The visiters of the Session book fand great diligence in discipline and much exactnesse in processes but some impertinent words and omissions wer observed, as the not inserting of the causes of fasts and thanksgiveings and such lyk, wherupon William Murray, clerk to the Session, wes admonished and the ministers required that one or both of them sould be assisting to the said Williame in filling up of ther register that processes and others may be the more formallie done. The said William being removed wes approven in his painefulnesse of teaching the Musick Schoole but wes admonished to walk more circumspectlic and soberlie in his conversation.

Alexander Murray, kirk officer, being removed, the ministers and elders gaue him no gude report be reason of his sloughtfulnesse and carelesnesse in his office, who being called in wes sharplie rebuked and the ministers and elders enjoyed to discharge him the office iff heirafter he be not found to amend.

The ministers being enquired anent ther provision of mantainance declared they hade a competent mantainance but for gleib and manse they hade bot one which Mr. Murdoch McKenzie [possessed] which manse is not competent neither is the gleib full, wherfor Mr. William Clogie, Mr. Thomas Law, Mr. Alexander Anderson, Mr. Robert Innes ar appointed to designe a full gleib in the lands next adjacent to the imperfect gleib that presentlie he posseseth, as also Mr. Thomas Law is appointed to seek the benefitt of the law for a manse and gleib for himself.

The communicants are two and twentie hundreth in number.

The ministers of Elgin declare ther consent of disjoyneing Pluscarden and Kelles from the paroch of Elgin and annexing of them to Birney for ther better accommodation and of the disjoyning of Blackhills at the east from Elgin and annexing it to Longbryde. The presbytery delay their judgement.

The ministers of Elgin requyred advys anent the censure of Jeane Annand, spous to Major George Meldrum, and Jonat Cuthbell, spous to Alexander Innes of Old Milnes, who hade miscarried in the kirk upon the Lords day twixt the second and third bell befor the most part of the congregation in scolding termes one against another upon a contest of ther sitting in a dask. Both the said parties to be discharged sitting in that dask henceforth and for the great offence wes given to the congregation they publiklie upon the nixt Lords day to acknowledge ther fault in face of the congregation.

January 31st. — Andrew Leslie in Elgin, a captain in the late unlawfull ingadgment, is appointed to make his publict repentance befor the congregation of Elgin.

February 14th. — The ministers of Elgin regrated that some few parochiners of Elgin hade not communicat this last tyme though they wer debarred by no act of anie kirk judicatorie. They ar appointed to writt to Mr. Joseph Brodie to be informed anent the censure of such.

March 13th.—Designation of Mr. Murdo McKenzies gleib. Those appointed past to the land called Harviehaugh as the most eweis kirk land to the parish of Elgin and measuring his present land and finding it short of a compleat gleib they measured as much adjacent land as made up four aikers marched as followeth: at the west having the high gate which descends from Losse wynd with the yards nixt adjacent therto, at the south the yards of the toun of Elgin, at the east descending from the saids yards by potts and kairnes to head of a bank northward, and upon north ane meadow lying nigh the water of Lossie.

April 17th.—Upon the joynt regrate of the ministers of Elgin that Mr. Thomas Law wanted gleib and manse, however manie kirk manses wer within the Colledge of Elgin unjustlie dilapidated and much kirk land lyand contigue with the borrow roodes of the said toun of Elgin, the presbyterie authorize the moderator [and three others] to designe the house and yaird in the Colledge of Elgin called the Viccars manse and now possest by James Chamber, gardener, as also they injoyne Mr. Robert Innes [and two others] to designe four aiker of land of the landis called Sanct Katharines croft lyand contigue with the house and yairdis of the friers of Elgin at the west as a sufficient gleib.

May 15th. — John Hepburne, sonne to Alexander Hepburne of Inverlochtie, a Lievetennant in the late vnlawfull ingadgment, acknowledged his guilt and humblie submitted to censure. The ministers of Elgin to sie him subscribe the declaration against the said ingadgment and after his publick repentance to receawe him.

The presbytery declare that the lands of Blackhills, Thornehill, Clackmarres with Easter Whitwraie be annexed to Langbryde and a representation to be made to the Lords of the Committee of Plantation that ther civile sanction may be interponed. They also declare that the nether part of the lands of Pluscarden, to witt, the precinct and lands lying contigue therto, Netherbyre, Appleward, Easter and Wester Hills, Barnehill, Drinkinghill, Redevie, Inchshellan, Inchsharmach, Forsterseat, Auchtertuyre, Corsley, Upper Manbeenes, Bogesyde and Wester Whyttray are not commodiouslie lying for the paroch of Elgin wherof they ar a part for that tyme but that they lye verie ewease and commodiouse for the paroch kirk of Birney. Therfor the presbyterie by thir presents declare that for the ease of the people and the propagation of the gossell it is fit and reasonable that the saidis lands be annexed to the said kirk of Birney and this ther judgement anent the accommodation of the saids lands to be represented to the Lords of the Committee of Plantation.

A place for a manse designed for Mr. Thomas Law and for a gleib
St. Katherines croft but the said land wanted of a full gleib.

June 20th.—The Session of Elgin supplicate for the annexation of Auldroughtie, Murrestoune and Sherreff Milne to Elgin, at present in Spynie, also that Linkwoodes might rather be annexed to Elgin than kept at Sanct Andrewes, seeing the water of Locye is interjected twixt them and ther paroch kirk wheras nothing may hinder them repairing to Elgin at anie tyme. The rentall of the teyndis of the paroches of Elgin, Spynie and St. Andrewes to be considered before anything is done.

January 8th.—Janet Hosack, charmer, being referred from Elgin, is appointed to mak her publik repentance in Birney, Alves and Elgin (becaus the scandall had spred farr) and that in sacco.

February 5th.—No exercise by reason off a gryt randizvooze off three parishes in the mure off Elgin.

March 19th.—No exercise this day by reason off a Committee that meet in the South Ill off the church.

Margaret Gordon in the parish of Essill being cited for deliverie off a scandalous letter to Mr. Thomas Law compeired and being posed be the moderator from whom she had receaved the said letter answered it was from a man ryding on a brown pownie. Mr. William Jack being posed denyed in gryt spleene that he wes the delyverer off the said letter and affirmed that he would prove that he was at home in Innes Hill that day and said it was a strange thing he could not get leave to live in the country for ministers, and Mr. Thomas Law desyred that the moderator sould enquire off everie brother what they knew concerning the author, penner or conveyer off the said letter, upon the which desyre incontinent
Mr. William Jack hasted away abruptlie and very irreverentlie to the dore, saying that he would neither speak nor do anything anent the said matter untill he got amends, bot the presbyterie taking this his miscarriage in evill part directed the officiar requiring him to returne which he refused to obey saying that he would not care for the presbyterie seing he was not charged and the officiar replying said I charge yow in the name off the moderator and presbyterie to returne presentlie under the paine off censure, to the which he answered he would not. To be cited to next meeting.

April 16th.—Janet Hosack, having appeared in sackcloth before the congregations of Alves and Elgin, is absolved from the scandal of charming.

Mr. William Jack, chaplain to Sir Robert Innes elder of that ilk, to be summoned to next dyet. Mr. Robert Gordon, son to Sir Robert Gordon of Gordonston, to be summoned to compear before the presbytery, being suspected of writing the foresaid scandalous letter.

April 30th.—Compeired Mr. William Jack and confessed his hastie and rash miscarriage before the presbyterie. Compeired Sir Ludovick Gordon and denied all knowledge of the writing of the scandalous letter.

Mr. William Thomsone, chaplaine to the Earle of Murray, summoned before the presbytery for sindry scandalous and uncharitable expressions uttered by him against the present publict resolutions of kirk and state and against ther doctrine. (1) Its alleadged he saith that the ministers of Elgin doe not edifie by ther doctrine, (2) Mr. Murdo McKenzie has nothing of Christ in his sermons, (3) Mr. Thomas Law darre byde by the thing he preacheth, (4) the present expedition will be the blackest ingadgment that came yet; and he ordinarlie speakes against the resolution of the kirk and state. He denied all.

May 1st.—A witness deponed that Mr. William Thomson hade spoken (while My Ladie Murray was commending Mr. Murdo McKenzie for his powerfull and able way of preaching) that the said Mr. Murdo was endeid a gude preacher if he lay neirer Christ, and by the disposition of one witness that Mr. Thomas Law wes much obleist to Cromwell for he helped him to spend a great part of his glasse in his sermons, and that this levy was like to proue another unlawfull ingadgment because of the violence and oppression in the land. The ministers of Elgin signifie to the presbytery to pass from anie censure on him, but the presbytery admonished him grauelie to beware of these or the lyk inconsiderate and uncharitable expressions and the said Mr. William received the word of admonition with a due and submissive respect.

May 14th.—Mr. William Jack compeired and was rebuked for his miscarriage before the presbytery. Further censure delayed.

The ministers of Elgin humbly regrated that howbeit ther wes great and pregnant presumptions of Margaret Innes in Elgin, spous to James Geddes, her horrid guilt of murdering her owne servant, named Jeane Innes, upon the tuentic third day of February last, being the Lords day, yet no tryall made thereanent by the civile magistrate becaus he has no particular commission for tryall of that murder and doeing justice therin accordinglie. Wherfor it is appointed a letter be written from the presbytery to the Kings Majestic, the Committee of Estates and Lords of Privie Councill humbly to petitionat the authoriseing of Thomas Dunbar, Sheriff Principall, and his deputs to try and administer justice in the said murder. The ministers of Elgin declared that they hade found by reall prooff that the said Margaret hade prostitute Marjorie Geddes, her daughter, to Mr. John Innes of Lewchars. This case to be tryed after the trial for the murther.

May 28th.—No doctrine in regard of a great concourse at a mercatt neir the kirk doore and a great noise such as useth to be at such tymes.

As Mr. William Jack is to repaire to Sutherland a letter is appointed to be written to the presbytery ther to take notice of him as of one vnsatisfied with the present publict resolutions of the church that the present unhappie divisions in the kirk and kingdome be not fomented and enlarged by his means in that part of the land.

Mr. Robert Gordon, son of Sir Robert Gordon, still refusing to satisfy the presbytery as to that scandalous letter he is to receive the first admonitione. Mr. Robert Gordon appeals to the Synod.

October 22nd.—Mr. Robert Gordone has satisfied in all points for his misdemeanour towards and rash speeches against the presbytery of Elgin conforme to the ordinance of the late Synod.

November 26th.—The said day it was found expedient to continow the doctrine thogh the exerciser was present and ready to delyver the doctrine, as also it was thogh thought expedient to continow the effaires of discipline in regard of the great concourse of English sojares within the toune and ther travelling thogh the cuntrey so that the bretheren were constrained to hasten home least in ther absence any violence should be offered to ther families. The bretheren taking to ther serious consideratione the inconveniencie of meiting in the toun of Elgin have appoynted the next meiting to be at Birney.

January 7th.—At Birney. The moderator reported that the meeting at Kinloss [with the presbytery of Forres appointed for December 10th, 1651] did not hold in regard of the coming of the English to the cuntry before the day of meeting.

June 30th.—Girsell Gibsone being referrit be the Sessione of Elgine to the presbitrie for her disobedience in not ansuering the discipline for her cohabitatione with ane English sojare in fornicatione under pretence of a forged marriage, compeired. The presbytery ordain her to stand publickly in sackcloath three Lords dayes before the pulpit the whole tyme off lecture and sermone in the forenoone.

July 7th.—Grissell Gibsone supplicating, the presbytery enjoin her to stand only two days.

July 27th.—No exercise in regard of the great concours of people, being the marcat evin.

April 20th.—At Elgin. No exercise in regard of the great concourse off Englishe sojores in and about the place of exercise.

July 6th.—Margaret Innes her sentence. She denied herself guilty of the murder of her servant, Jean Innes, but it was proved by two witnesses. An Act of Generall Assembly 1648 provided that where the public magistrate was deficient in his duty the guilty party should stand fifty Lord's days in sackcloth in that place where the scandal was. She was appointed to satisfy in the church of Elgin.

August 17th.—The ministers of Elgin report that Margaret Innes has given no obedience to the sentence of the presbytery.

The commissioner [Mr. Alexander Symmer] who was direct to the Generall Assemblie having returned reported that conforme to the commissione both hee and the ruling elder [Alexander Douglas of Spynie] had kept the tyme and place of meiting and that the Assemblie was violentlie raised (by some of the English commanders being accompanied with a number of sojares both horse and foot) immediatly after ther first sitting downe. The bretheren considering of the sadd and sorrowing condition of the Kirk of Christ in the land, they thocht it incumbent to them and a necessary dewtie in this day of Ziones distresses to have a private presbiteriall fast and day of humiliatione. The meeting to be at St. Andrews becaus Elgin was too publict a place. The moderator [Mr. Alexander Symmer], Mr. William Clogie, Mr. Murdo McKenzie and Mr. James Park appointed to be speakers and ilk one to spend ane houre in prayer and sermone and the meiting to beginne bee ten hours.

November 3rd.—Mr. John Innes of Lewchars compeirs for his mother-in-law, Margaret Innes, who is in sicknesse, and undertakes that she shall satisfy the discipline of the church.

November 16th.—At Elgine. That day all the bretheren having come to the toune to attend the presbiteriall meiting (being the ordinarie day) the meiting was interrupted by the English troupers who had a number of ther horses in the church which was the place of meiting, and they appointed the next meeting to bee Tuesday comes eight dayes.

November 29th.—At Elgine. Conveined moderator and remnant members, except Mr. Will. Sanders who is hindered by the greatnesse of the water of Spey. Ther was no exercise in regard of the foulnesse of the day, the bretheren not having mett tymeously.

July 3rd.—Visitation at Elgin. Elders: Mr. John Douglas, provost, Mr. William Cobban, bailye, Mr. James Annand, Robert Dumbar, bailye, James Tarras, bailye, George Cumyn, bailye, Mr. John Hay, commissar, [etc., 44 in all]. The ministers reported to be faithfull and painfull, only it was reported by some that be reason of the vast bounds of the parochie they could nott catechise so frequently as neid were. The ministers of Elgin declaired that (in respect off the number of their communicants and vastness of bounds) they could not doe their dutie in catechiseing and visitatione of families and desyred the presbitry to tak it to their consideratione and ease them of their unsupportable burthen. The visitor of the Session Book declares that much diligence is used against delinquents and much exactnes in disciplin, only ther ar many informalities in the wreator. William Murray, clerk to the Session and precentor, being removed, the ministers of Elgin declare that after admonition he was unskilfull in wreatig and somewhat exorbitant in his exactions. Being called in, he was gravely rebuked be the moderator and exhorted to amend. Mr. George Cumyn, schoolmaster in grammar, being remowed was approven in lyfe, conversatioun and abilities and painefulness. The said day Mr. John Hay, commissar, declared that the foresaid Mr. George had demitted his charge and desired the presbitrie to be diligent in choysing and purchasing another schoolmaster. Alexander King, schoolmaster in musick, was approven. James Wardin, officiar, was approven.

April 26th.—Refers of Synod . . . (2) that Mr. Alexander Symmer, moderator of the exercise of Elgin, and Mr. James Horne require the provost of Elgin to duly observe the Act of the Lords of Privie Counsell against papists Jan. 13, 1670.

August 23rd.—The Lord Bishop and brethren ordained Mr. James Horne to excommunicate Patrick Innes for that dreadfull and hainous sin in murdering Charles Innes, his brother, it being committed within the parish of Elgin. Both are sones to George Innes of Coldcotts.

October 4th.—Refers of the Synod: that the papists within the bounds of the exercise be summoned befor the Counsell to the first Thursday of Februarie.

June 12th.—The Lord Bishop being to repair to the South to the Parliament, it is ordained that the brethren per vices supplie his absence by preaching one the Tuysdayes in Elgin untill he returne.

July 31st.—Mr. James Horne, minister of Elgin, regrated that Mr. William Dowglas, ane expectant, did without any warrant possess himself on Tuesday of ther pulpit and that in his cloack, Mr. James Hamiltoune, who was appoynted to preach, all that tyme being at his back in his gowne. To be summoned for his inorderlie intrusion.

August 14th.—Mr. William Douglas declared he was impowered to preach in Elgin the 30 July by a line from Mr. William Annan whos vice it was to preach in the Bishops absence. It was found Mr. William Douglas asked Mr. William Annan for libertie and he referred him to Mr. James Hamilton who refused to allow him. The sentence of Mr. William Douglas referred to the Lord Bishop.

October 30th.—Mr. William Douglas is removed from this place of the country.

January 8th.—Anent John Mackean in Elgin the Lord Bishop and brethren thought fitt that befor his oath were taken as yet he should go to the new church of Elgin the next Lords day and there after sermon receive a word of exhortation and if he stood to a denyall of the sin of adultery that his oath should be taken in the old church of Elgin the Lords day thereafter.

Mr. James Hamilton in the precentors seat did stand up after the first prayer and opened his Bible but it was only to hear the text. Robert Rutherford, late bailie, confessed he then said "Sit down, sir," and to Mr. William Douglas (supposing him to have come there upon an orderly call) "Go on, sir, in your Masters work."

January 29th.—John Mackean has taken the oath of purgation.

November 5th.—Anent John Glass and Anna Stewart, obstinat professors of popery in Elgin, ordained the last presbyterial meeting to be excommunicat, Mr. James Horne reported that on the earnest solicitation of both these persons a moneths intimation was granted and the pronouncing of the sentence was delayed till that time, which by the Bishop and brethren was allowed and the said Mr. James in the meanwhile ordained to be informing himself whether or not this their request be onely a dilator to shift discipline or if there may be any probability of their returning to the profession of the truth.

April 1st.—Mr. James Horne is ordained to pronounce the dreadful sentence of excommunication against John Glass, butcher in Elgin, and Anna Stewart, spouse to John Sinclare, glover in Elgin, for their obstinacie in the profession of poprie notwithstanding of all the paines taken and means used for the reclaiming of them.

August 12th.—Mr. James Horne regraited to the Lord Bishop and brethren that Mr. James Hamiltowne, preacher of the gospel at Elgin, had uttered upon ane Lords day in the afternoon some expressions which did reflect upon all the brethren in generall als well as himselfe in particular, to wit, that if ministers wer as diligent in catechizing persones committed to ther chairge and in visiting of families as they ar in fleecing the flockes in tyme of viccarage ther would not be so many ignorant persones as ther ar : or as others say, If ministers in this place, viz. Elgin, wer as diligent etc. The Lord Bishop and brethren thought fitt to continue the businesse till the next presbytery day that said Mr. James Hamiltowne being present might answer for himselfe.

October 7th.—Mr. James Hamilton is sharply rebuked before the presbytery and seriously and gravely admonished for his imprudent speeches.

July 13th.—Visitation of Elgin. The minister being inquired if ther were communion tables, cloathes, cups, basins and lawar, he answered they had only table cloathes, basins and a lawar. Mr. John Wilsone, schoolmaster of the Latin school, and Thomas Innes, schoolmaster of the English school and session clerk, approven. It being regraited by Mr. James Horne that there were many dishaunters of ordinances and habituall frequenters of the meetings of schismaticall teachers, it was appointed by the Lord Bishop and brethren (that evill being universall) that some common course might be taken for preventing of the samen in tym comming. Lists to be given in.

August 18th.—George Cumming, provest of Elgin, has fallen in fornication with Janet Mitchell and refuses to satisfy the discipline while in office. The Lord Bishop and brethren thought fitt that if some short piece of tyme might bring him to a compliyanse with and submission to discipline the same should be indulgit him.

September 22nd.—The Lord Bishop and brethren finding that George Cumming his craving of a respyte and a whiles continuance from making public profession of his repentance was nothing else but a shifting and a dilatour, wherfor Mr. James Horne was ordained to summond him to the Session of Elgine.

October 6th.—Mr. James Horne reported that as yet he had not summoned George Cuming, provost, on some grave considerations but should be carefull to doe it befor the next day.

November 1st.—The exercise continued this day by reasone of the meeting of deane and chapter for the electione of the Bishope.

October 31st.—The minister of Belly gave in ane letter be Mr. Walter Darge concerning the alleadged marriage of Catherane Sutherland and Keneth McKenzie, wherein the said Mr. Walter Darge declaired that they came to him seeking marriage and that he refused them, but the said Keneth McKenzie and Catherane Sutherland declared that the said Mr. Walter did marrie them in his owne barn, wherupon the saids Keneth McKenzie and Catherane Sutherland are referred back to the Session of Elgin to satisfie for their pretended scandalous marriage.

November 21st.— The minister of Elgin reported that Keneth McKenzie being imprysoned by the magistrates of Elgin untill he should set surtie to satisfie the disciplin of the Session of Elgin for his scandalous marriage had broken ward and made his escape. [Catherine Sutherland's husband is still alive and she has obtained no divorce against him. She satisfies in sackcloth for her alleged marriage.]

January 6th.—Visitation of Elgin. The church hath all its proper utensils as tables, cups, basons and table cloathes, and the church is repairing with seats and desks.

The next meeting appointed to be at Spynie this day 20 dayes but the Lords of Counsell and Justiciarie being for the tyme sitting at Elgin and all the brethren being obleidged to attend ther, the meeting for the visitation of the church of Spynie was appointed to be the 4th of March.

February 23rd.—Although the exerciser and bretheren were present yet they judged it convenient to continue the exercise because of the great confluence of people that was in the town, the magistrats having casten Fastens Eves fair to this day, the bretheren nothing suspecting this at the last dyet of the exercise.

[Minutes from September 20th, 1688, to July 1st, 1702, are wanting.]

June 24th.—The ministers of Elgin having applied to the Justices of Peace for punishment of Jean Paris as a most profligate, scandalous, vitious vagrant, the Justices caused her to be sett on the cockstool where she stood between the hours of 11 and 1, was also then put out of the town of Elgin by tuck of drum and banished the province of Murray.

Isobell Leslie, daughter of the deceased Mr. John Leslie, late minister at Rothies, confessed that Mr. Thomas Cravey, present minister of the meeting house at Elgin, was father of her child. He denied and fled from the discipline of the church.

June 20th.—Mr. King, the clerk, has gone to the wells of Peterhead.

1713.

January 6th.—No presbyterial exercise, only Mr. Thomson preached, it being the day of their weekly lecture at Elgin.

September 11th.—Representation to the Commissioners for overseeing the election of a magistracy and Town Council in Elgin:—We, the ministers of the Presbytery of Elgin, finding ourselves aggrieved by a magistracy in this place disaffected to His Majesty King George and his government, that it has been a mean not only to doe hurt to this place but of a pernicious influence upon all the country about and an hindrance to our obtaining our just rights as a presbytrie, we thought it our duty to represent to you that the whole of the present magistracy and Town Council of Elgin were chosen under the influence of the rebels that very day in which they proclaimed the Pretender in this place as King of Great Brittain, which was countenanced so farr as that the provost and others of the magistrates were present at the proclamation and drank what was counted the health of the day, and all the particular persons following either waited upon the public worship where the Pretender was prayed for under the name of King James, or were present at the proclamation of the Pretender as King of Great Brittain, or both, viz. Mr. Archibald Dunbar of Thoundertoun, provost, James Wiseman, bailife, James Charles, bailife, Kenneth McKenzie, late bailife, John Gordon, merchant in Elgin, George Innes of Dunkintie, Doctor Russell, Andrew Dick, conveener, James Finlay, tayleour. And this in our name and at our appointment subscribed by Robert Bates moderator.

October 20th.—A reference was read to the presbytery from the Session of Elgin anent Agnes Urquhart, who has confessed herself guilty of charming by making use of the Bible and key for finding out things that were stollen, which she has done frequently and also taught her daughter the said art: all which she owned herself guilty of before the forsaid session. She compears not.

1725.

June 15th.—Agnes Urquhart, charmer, confesses. To be publickly rebuked before the congregation of Elgin.

January 6th.—Parochial Visitation of Elgin. Mr. Joseph Sanderson, minister at Elgin, preached on his ordinary, Gal. 2, 20. The magistrates, heritors, elders and heads of families within the parish of Elgin being thrice called at the church door, compeared James Anderson, provest of Elgin, Joseph Brodie of Miltown, John Sutherland of Greenhall, and several other heritors, as also Charles Gordon, James Cramond, Robert Duff and George Wilson, present baillies, Thomas Purse, treasurer, with the elders and a good number of heads of families. Mr. Sanderson being enquired who were his elders answered Joseph Brodie, Laird of Miltown, Baillie James Cramond, Baillie Robert Duff, Baillie George Wilson, Thomas Purse, treasurer, James McKean, John Sanders, William Blenshell, Robert Walker, James Urquhart, George Allan (these all present) and James Alves, absent. Mr. Anderson was also enquired if the people of Elgin had a lecture and sermon every Lord's day in the forenoon and a sermon in the afternoon and another on the Tuesday, and he answered they had so. Then he was asked if he visited the families and examined the parochiners of Elgin every year. He answered that the people of that parish were so numerous that for some years bypast the minister of Elgin had not been able to overtake visiting the families, but that such as would attend had been examined and that he visited the sick to the utmost of his ability. As to the frequencie in administration of the Lord's Supper he said it was administered the year before the last and had only been omitted last year because of the vacancie. Being interrogat anent the people's subjection to his ministry and their due attendance upon ordinances, he answered there were in Elgin a good many persons of several different persuasions who did not attend the ordinances as dispensed by the ministers of this Church, and there was a meeting house erected not far from the church and frequented by many persons in Elgin, but that the people disaffected to this Church were not at present increasing in number; and as to those that are of our communion he said they attended ordinances punctually and were every way subject to his ministry. Then Mr. Sanderson removed. The magistrates, heritors, elders and several heads of families being interrogat concerning his doctrine, discipline and ministerial conversation, as also concerning his diligence and painfullness in his ministerial work, they all gave a good report of him as one fit for the charge he bears, his doctrine edifying, his discipline impartial, his life exemplary and his diligence according to his strength and ability. The presbytery did approve of him and the moderator was appointed to encourage him in the Lord, and he being called in it was done accordingly. The ordinary questions anent the life and conversation of the elders and harmony and impartiality in the execution of discipline were enquired at the minister and parochiners of Elgin separately, and they having spoke well of them as to these particulars, they were interrogat next if they had the worship of God in their families, the minister answered that he was sure that the most part of them had the worship of God in their families and that he did believe that the whole of them had so. The presbytery did approve and appoint as above, and they being called in it was done accordingly. In like manner the ordinary questions anent the precentor and session clerk and kirk officers being interrogat, the minister and people of Elgin did approve of them as the presbytery also did, and they being called in were exhorted to be circumspect in their lives and dutifull in their several callings. Then the presbytery came to enquire anent their mortifications and found they had (1) a mortification by the late John Innes of Darkland, being a part of the Shooting Acres, which was farmed out and did amount communibus annis to 52 or 53 pounds Scots money; (2) another by the said John Innes, being the interest of 1000 merks money forsaied; these two mortifications for the use of the poor; (3) another by the late Revd. Mr. James Thomson, minister at Elgin, being the interest of 600 merks money forsaied of principal piouslie given by the forsaied doner for buying bibles to poor children; (4) Robert Gordon, late merchant in Elgin, mortified the yearly interest of 1000 merks for relief of poor persons aged above 70 years; (5) the late William Duff of Dipple and Bracco mortified 1000 pounds Scots, the annual rent thereof to be paid and divided by his successors to the poor living in his estate within the parishes of Elgin and Spynie, and his successors to be discharged by the Kirk Session of Elgin; (6) Alexander Dick, late glover in Elgin, mortified 100 merks, the interest thereof for the use of the poor. Then the presbytery came to enquire anent church utensils and they found they had two communion cups of silver, four basons besides one for baptism, a communion table with cloth and seats conform. Registers approved, except act August 9, 1726, anent delinquents, and a minute June 27, 1729.

October 19th.—The ministers of Elgin are much discommoded by their wanting houses but the presbytery do not incline to proceed in this affair at present.

May 9th.—The edict for the admission of Mr. Lauchlan Shaw to be minister at Elgin having been returned duely execute, the sermon was preached by Mr. James Dunbar from Acts chap. 16 v. 9, after which he was admitted in the usual manner and welcomed to the presbyterie by the moderator and other members.

November 19th.—Moderation of a call at Elgin. Call to Mr. Alexander Howie, minister at Methlic, signed by 168 persons, also signed for 88 who could not write. Call to Mr. Alexander Irvine, minister at Oldearn, signed by 213 persons, also signed for 168 who could not write. Petition given in signed by Alexander Dick and several of the Trades of Elgin, craving that Mr. Irvine's call be rejected in regard he was of a weak constitution and they could not hear his voice in the farrest corners of the big church of Elgin and because of the meanness of the subscribers of the said call.

December 13th.—Duncan McGregor, reputed charmer, compeared and adhered to his confession anent the manner of curing the fevers. The presbytery having dealt with him to convince him of the evil of this practice and he having professed himself sorrowful for it and promising through the grace of God never to do the like in time coming, he was reprovved and dismissed.

January 16th.—Petition by several heritors that the presbytery concur in petitioning the Barons of Exchequer for a gift of the vacant stipends of Elgin to be applied towards the maintenance of a school-master or schoolmasters in the most distant extremities of that parish and for cieling the church of Elgin and building a steeple thereon. The presbytery concur.

Evidence taken as to hearing Mr. Irvine from some in Glovers' loft, Shoemakers' loft, Weavers' loft, Wrights' loft (in west end of the church), Lord Duffus' loft (opposite the pulpit), Guildry loft, Merchants' loft, Earl of Murray's loft, and the common loft. Most of Mr. Irvine's supporters deponed that they were not 'thick' of hearing and heard him fairly well. Mr. Howie's supporters did not hear him well. The opponents of Mr. Irvine urged undue influence brought to bear upon Braco's tenants of Pluscarden, Milntown and Mostowie, as also upon Blackhills' tenants. The presbytery depart from further proof anent Mr. Irvine's lowness of voice, he having been heard by them having been licensed by them. The presbytery take no proof anent undue influence, that being appealed to the Synod. Mr. Howie's party appeal to the Synod on the whole case.

February 7th.—Subscribers to Mr. Irvine's call are country and College elders 14, holding feus and crofts of the town 21, elders 8 with the colleague minister, and 309 heads of families of which about 20 heads of families attend the meeting house. Subscribers to Mr. Howie's call are elders 8, heritors and magistrates 15, heads of families 246 of which about 20 heads of families attend the meeting house. The presbytery voted to concur with the call of Mr. Irvine. Mr. Howie's supporters appeal to the Synod.

March 11th.—Mr. Howie's supporters in their reasons of appeal urge that not one-eighth part of the country part of the parish attend worship at Elgin, "the rest we are sorry to have to say attend nowhere or go to other congregations by reason of the great distance from Elgin."

June 3rd.—No presbyterial exercise by reason of a public fair in the town.

The late General Assembly has affirmed the sentence of the presbytery anent the call to Mr. Irvine.

August 5th.—List of papists . . . in town and parish of Elgin, Janet Grant, an unmarried woman; Jean Stuart, spouse to James Gordon, merchant in Elgin, Margaret Gordon, his daughter; John Smith, blacksmith in the College of Elgin, Alexander, his son; and Thomas Forbes, merchant in Elgin.

February 3rd.—Extract submitted of a commission from the Committee for managing the King's Bounty to Mr. John Touch, probationer, appointing him to be itinerant preacher in the Glen of Pluscarden from 1st January last to 1st May next. The presbytery enjoin him to preach, catechize and visit families and the sick, also warmly to enjoin heads of families to have family worship, and to take particular pains to instruct the more ignorant, to exhort them to sanctify the Lord's day, to attend public worship, etc.

1739.

June 26th.—Royal Bounty Committee appoint Mr. William Irvine, probationer, to be itinerant at Pluscarden in place of Mr. Touch.

1741.

February 24th. — A committee report that, though there are no vestiges of manses in the town or parish of Elgin, there is ground within the town allotted for building upon and also a garden for which a tenant pays them a small yearly rent. Workmen estimate £1682 Scots as cost of a manse for one of the ministers, 36 ft. by 15 ft., three stories and a garret in height, slated, containing a kitchen and a cellar below, with garden dykes, also a small house to accommodate two cows and a horse, and another for a barn.

April 14th.—The presbytery give decret for the aforesaid manse.

August 4th.—Royal Bounty Committee have appointed Mr. Robert Dalrymple to be itinerant at Pluscarden for four months and in Dundurcus for the rest of the year at a salary of £10 stg.

January 12th.—Stent of £1000 Scots for the manse of Elgin:—Lord Braco for his lands in the parish, £500; Newmiln for the Bishop of Ross's lands and Subchanter's croft, £31 18s.; John Sinclair for Moy croft, £1 16s. 10d.; Provost Anderson for the Subdean's croft, £1 14s. 4d.; Mr. Paterson for Dipple croft, £1 2s. 2d.; Burgy for Dean's Crook, £2 10s.; Greenhall for Blackfryar haugh, £10 3s. 6d., etc., landward in all £778 12s.: heritors of the town's lands in all £221 8s.:—Earl of Moray for Davila Green and Kilncruik, Clerk Fraser for Palmerbutts, Officerridge, one third Croft Croy; etc.

September 20th.—Mr. Francis Hasbeen is appointed to supply as itinerant preacher in Glen of Pluscarden at a salary of £10 a year from the Royal Bounty Committee. It is recommended to the ministers of Elgin to give some further allowance.

1746.

February 18th.—The presbyterie met after prayer, sederunt only Mrs. Paterson, Irvine and Shaw. The rest of the members could not venture to come to Elgin by reason of the great number of rebels by the way. The members present prayed. They adjourned to the 4th of March.

March 4th.—Four members only present. No business.

March 18th.—Four only present for reason abovenamed.

April 17th—No meeting could be held on first Tuesday of April by reason of the great number of rebels in the town of Elgin. Absents from meetings of the presbytery since January 21st are excused because of the circumstances of the time, when the rebels were numerous in the country.

July 15th.—Visitation of Elgin. The ministers report that there is a considerable number of persons who do not attend the ordinances dispensed by ministers of this church, and that there is a meeting house in the town of Elgin which a considerable number of the parishioners frequent; that those of our communion duly attend ordinances and are very subject to their ministry. The ministers are informed all the elders keep family worship. There are 11 elders in the town, including Joseph Brodie of Miltown, Bailies Duff, Allan, etc., and 9 in landward. The ministers preach twice on the Lord's Day, and on Tuesday.

The Lord's Supper is administered yearly. List of Mortifications: [(1) to (6) as at January 6, 1730]; (7) £300 Sc. of the Session money; (8) 500 merks mortified by Bailie Cramond; (9) £100 Sc. by John Sanders; (10) 500 merks by James McEan (not yet recovered). There are 2 communion cups of silver, 4 basons, 1 bason for baptism, a communion table with cloath and seats conform.

February 1st.—A petition to the presbytery from the ministers of Elgin, representing that there is no manse, and asking steps to be taken.

March 1st.—Visitation relating to a manse at Elgin. Francis Stuart, for the Earl of Fife, protests against proceeding to design a manse in a burgh. Other heritors adhere. They have never had a manse. The presbytery resolve to apply to the Court of Session to have a manse built.

July 5th.—The glebe of Elgin is now in possession of Mr. David Rintoul, one of the ministers. The glebe is a triangular plot of land marched at the west corner by a road close by the garden walls of the town, at the north by the top of the brae or bank next to what is called the Little Glebe belonging to Dunkinty, at south by a footpath or road on the edge of the corn land at some distance from the garden walls of the town and college, and at the east by a dyke or wall of dry stones built upon a merine between the glebe and Dunkinty's land of Harvey's haugh.

May 27th.—The presbytery finding there is to the north of the High Church of Elgin ground on which the minister's manse formerly stood and likewise a garden, did agree on the following dimensions for a manse, 47 ft. by 18½ and 23 ft. high, and an office house for one horse and two cows and barn, said office houses to be thatched only with divot. The estimates of workmen amount to £336 Stg. The presbytery give decret for this.

April 8th. — The commissioners to the General Assembly are to represent the necessity of continuing Mr. Francis Hasbeen in the Glen of Pluscardin, as (1) there are of late some papists come to reside in that glen, (2) Francis Hasbeen's long service challenges his being provided for in his old age (he requires a horse now), and (3) one of the ministers of Elgin is now quite unfit for travelling.

Application to be made to the General Assembly for help out of the publick funds, as there is likely to be great opposition, the 80 heritors all opposing. There has been no manse in Elgin since some time before the Revolution, when the former manse was burnt. The stipend of each minister of Elgin is only £69 8s. 10d. Stg.

July 6th.—Royal presentation in favour of Mr. William Peterkin to Elgin as assistant and successor to Mr. Lachlan Shaw. Mr. Patrick Duff, writer, Elgin, and others protest and appeal to the Synod of Moray.

1774.

April 5th.—Mr. Lachlan Shaw demits his charge. New presentation in favour of Mr. William Peterkin.

May 12th.—Persons concurring in Mr. Peterkin's presentation 285, dissenting 31 (including Mr. Rintoul, minister). The presbytery refer the whole matter to the ensuing General Assembly.

July 14th.—Mr. William Peterkin ordained and admitted.

May 8th.—The presbytery write Rev. Mr. Ronald Bayne, chaplain to his Majesty's 73rd Regiment, asking on what footing the new chapel for which he is collecting subscriptions is to be erected, and if in connection with the Establishment they have a right to be informed of its design. The presbytery have also a right to see that the money bequeathed to the Little Kirk Society is applied to the purpose for which it was originally designed. He replies by bearer that the money is collected in name of the Managers of the Chapel, who will reply as to the design. The presbytery consider the letter unsatisfactory and request a reply from the Managers.

June 18th.—The Managers of the Little Kirk inform the presbytery they design the chapel now building, not as a dissenting meeting house, but as a Chapel of Ease connected with the Established Church. It is replied on 21st June that, if so, the sanction of the Church is necessary in terms of Act of Assembly 1798.

December 4th.—The presbytery resolve to obtain the opinion of the Procurator as to their powers over the Little Kirk and its mortifications.

April 5th.—A memorial is sent to the Procurator. (Herein it is stated that the parish of Elgin is a collegiate charge and served by two ministers in every respect upon an equal footing. On Mr. Peterkin's appointment in 1774 there was much opposition, which opposition Rev. David Rintoul joined and encouraged. The dissentients got a preacher and the use of the Little Kirk, a chapel belonging to the town where public worship used to be on week days. The congregation increased. They elected managers. Rev. Mr. Rintoul left £100 Stg. to them. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was never given in the Little Kirk. The preacher of the Little Kirk has for years assisted at the Sacrament in the parish church. The collections for the poor in the Little Kirk are under the management of the Kirk Session). The Procurator thinks the presbytery should not have winked at the meeting so long but should now bring it before the General Assembly.

April 30th.—The Managers of the Little Kirk petition the presbytery that all the ordinances of religion be administered in their lately built chapel. The Little Kirk was ruinous but the petitioners had no power to pull it down or repair it. For 24 or 25 years the petitioners have been recognised by the presbytery as a congregation in connection with the Church of Scotland. The presbytery delay their deliverance until the General Assembly has given its judgment, and meantime interdict them from employing any clergymen of the Established Church to perform any ministerial function in the new Chapel.

May 7th.—The Managers remonstrate against the interdict. £280 Stg. has been bequeathed in all to the Little Kirk. The parish of Elgin contains in town and country 4500 souls, of whom about 700 are dissenters as Seceders, Episcopalians, Methodists and Roman Catholics, and 500 others are in the Glen of Pluscarden, having an ordained missionary; therefore about 3300, young and old, in the parish church, and the church can accommodate 2000 at once easily.

July 2nd.—The General Assembly remit to the presbytery of Elgin to proceed according to the Act of Assembly 1798 respecting the erection of Chapels of Ease. The Managers represent to the presbytery that by the Statistical Account the population of the parish is about 5000 and in the Big Church only 1155 can be accommodated. Now the parish church should accommodate two-thirds of the people of the parish of whatever religious denomination. Sums left to the Little Kirk: 1781, Mr. Joseph Gordon, Bath, £100; 1780 or 1781, Mrs. Helen Rintoul, widow of Mr. David Rintoul, minister of the gospel in Elgin, bequeathed £5 of a yearly annuity and in 1787 made a grant of £100; 1793, Alexander Brander of Kinedward, merchant in London, legated £50; and in 1794 John Petrie, merchant, left £20.

April 1st. — A paper is submitted by the Managers, which the presbytery call scurrilous. A petition by county parishioners is submitted, the number of subscribers and their families being 473.

April 29th.—The presbytery decide that a Chapel of Ease in Elgin is at present unnecessary and inexpedient. The Managers appeal to the General Assembly. [On May 26th the General Assembly affirm the judgment of the presbytery].

Unto the Honourable the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Elgin the Petition of James Cruden, master of the Musick

School of Elgin, humbly sheweth that about two years ago it was concerted betuixt your Honours and the ministers of Elgin that an improvement upon the publick singing in the church was highly necessary, that some time thereafter your Petitioner was advised to practise every evening in the Little Church with such of the inhabitants and others as pleased to attend in order to make this improvement, and accordingly I attended every evening and weekly every Friday before noon for six months, and during that space your Honours are sensible that a great number of people convened every evening and that by my closs application, attendance and pains the church was brought to such a conformity that their now method of singing is approved by the best judges, that the bringing about of this work putt your Petitioner to a great deal of extraordinary fatigue, and as your Honours are in the knowledge that the severe task was no part of my charge and that I never received any reward for this performance :

May it therefore please your Honours to consider what is sett forth and to allow your Petitioner what your Honours shall see meet for my trouble, pains and attendance in excuting the above task, as every burgh in Scotland where this new improvement has been introduced have given great encouragement to the performers of such laudable undertakings and your Petitioner shall ever pray.

(Signed) JAMES CRUDEN.

March 21st.—George Cumming, provost of Elgin, appeared with Mr. George Innes desyring the presbytery to appoint some taske for the said Mr. George who may give some evidence of his abilities for teaching the grammar since the counsel hade given him a call to that effect. The presbytery prescribed the 2nd Ode of Horace 1st booke and ordained the said Mr. George to give account thereof this day eight dayes if he found himselfe in a capacitie for it. [Mr. George Innes had his trial continued on March 28th, and was examined and admitted on April 17th].

March 29th.—Mr. William Cumming, son to John Cumming of Loggie, elected schoolmaster at Elgin, prescribed as trials 22nd Ode of 1st Book of Horace.

May 2nd.—Mr. William Cumming did handle the 22nd Ode of Horace to the satisfaction of the Lord Bishop and brethren and was admitted.

March 8th.—Master John Stewart, schoolmaster at Urquhart, recommended by the magistrates of Elgin to the presbytery of Elgin for tryall as successor to Master George Stinsone, teacher of the Grammar School, is admitted.

1704.

May 15th.—The magistrates of Elgin petition the presbytery to try some young men's qualifications and fitness to be schoolmaster at Elgin. In presence of the magistrates and a good many of the burgesses concerned the presbytery appointed them to give a specimen of their fitness for teaching a Grammar School by expounding some parts of Erasmus, Buchanan's Chronicles, Sextus Aurelius, Horatius and Virgil. The presbytery having also asked them several questions concerning the grammar and something in authors removed all but members, when the presbytery declared that Mr. Patrick Rose was not fit and Mr. James Cromby, present schoolmaster at Cullen, was fit. The presbytery having called in Mr. James Cromby find that he had subscribed the Confession of Faith and having promised to bring a certificate of his life and conversation they then removed him and called in the magistrates and told them their judgment.

The moderator did dictate an argument to them and a part of a speech out of Sallust for a version, both these pieces of tryals to be finished against the afternoon, till which time they were enclosed and the presbytery adjourned.

Post meridiem. The candidates for the school of Elgin gave in their themes and versions, which were examined, and all of them separately expounded the same part of Virgil, Horace and Erasmus, with the analysis, and then the presbytery having considered their several performances judged them all young men of promising qualifications but unanimously gave the preference to Mr. William Gordon and declared him to be the fittest person for being schoolmaster at Elgin.

March 23rd.—Visitation of School of Elgin. All concerned being thrice called at the school door and Baillies James Innes and Robert Duff having appeared, the presbytery took full trial of the scholars as to their proficiency in the Latin tongue, and Mr. William Gordon was removed and the scholars were interrogat anent his attendance, diligence in instructing them in the principles of the Christian religion and the other ordinary questions, and their answers were heard, and Mr. Gordon was approved and being called in this was intimat to him.

1735.

June 3rd.—Mr. James Cruickshank, teacher of the Grammar School of Elgin, after the presbytery had conferred with the magistrates, is required to attend the presbytery to discourse him anent his settlement etc. The magistrates are willing to do as other royal burghs do.

APPENDIX O.

DR. ARTHUR JOHNSTON'S EPIGRAM ON ELGIN.

This epigram was first published in 1642, a year after the author's death. The epigram and the translation are taken from vol. ii., p. 285, of Musa Latina Aberdonensis, edited by Sir William D. Geddes (New Spalding Club, 1895).

ELGINUM.

Laudibus Elgini cedunt Peneia Tempe,
 Et Baiæ veteres, Hesperidumque nemus.
 Hinc maris, inde vides prædivitis aequora campi,
 Frugibus hæc populum, piscibus illa beant.
 Huc sua Phaeaces miserunt poma, Damasci
 Pruna nec hic desunt, vel Cerasuntis opes.
 Attica mellifici liquistis tecta volucres,
 Et juvat hic pressis cogere mella favis.
 Aemulus argento fecundos Loxa per agros
 Errat et obliquis in mare serpit aquis.
 Arcibus Heroum nitidis urbs cingitur, intus
 Phoebeii radiant nobiliumque lares.
 Omnia delectant, veteris sed rudera templi
 Dum spectas, lacrimis, Scotia, tinge genas.

ELGIN.

Elgin's praise surpasses that of Tempe, Baiæ, or the grove of the Hesperides. On one hand the reaches of the sea, on the other fertile plains, bring store of sustenance to the city. Hither the Phaeacians sent their native apples, nor are wanting Damascene plums and the wealth of Cerasus. A colony of Attic bees winged their flight hither, and delight to load the honeycombs. The Lossie, like silver, wanders through fertile fields, and finds its way obliquely to the sea. With shining castles of heroic men the town is girt, and within it are elegant mansions of noble men. The whole is charming, save one thing, the ruins of thy ancient shrine: when, O Scotia, thine eye beholds, bedew thy cheek with tears.

TWENTY-FIRST REPORT BY THE COUNCIL.

Approved at the Twenty-first Annual General Meeting of the New Spalding Club, held on Friday, 27th December, 1907, at 3 p.m.

Since the last General Meeting held on Friday, 28th December, 1906, there have been issued to members:—

I.—RECORDS OF THE SHERIFFDOM OF ABERDEEN. Edited by Mr. David Littlejohn, I.L.D. Vol. III. : Records, 1642-1660, with Supplementary List of Officials, 1660-1907 ; and Index to Volumes I., II. and III. by Miss Jean E. Kennedy. (Pp. xx + 403 : with the Twentieth Annual Report by the Council.)

II.—THE HOUSE OF GORDON. Edited by Mr. J. M. Bulloch. Vol. II. (Pp. xlvi + 611 ; with Frontispiece presented by Mr. William Leiper, R.S.A.)

- (i.) Bibliography of Gordon Genealogy (continued) By the Editor.
- (ii.) History of the Gordon Family, by Joannes Ferrerius, circa 1545. Edited by the Rev. Stephen Ree, B.D., Boharm.
- (iii.) History of the Gordon Family, by Robert Gordon of Straloch, circa 1655. Edited by the Rev. S. Ree.
- (iv.) Genealogical Tables of Gordons, by Sir Robert Gordon of Gordonstoun, circa 1659. Edited by the Rev. J. M. Joass, LL.D., Golspie.
- (v.) The Gordons of Lesmoir, Crichtie, Birkenburn, Terpersie, Leicheston, and Newton.

By Captain Douglas Wimberley, Inverness, and Mr. J. M. Bulloch.

(vi.) Gordon Ballads. Edited by the Rev. S. Ree.

It will be remembered that when the second volume of Mr. Bulloch's book was mentioned in last year's Report, a final fascicle was promised, to contain "Biographical Notices of Gordons in the British Army, comprising 1,374 names, by Mrs. C. Skelton". It has been found impracticable to include this for two reasons. The other six fascicles by themselves constitute a volume considerably exceeding the average bulk; and Mrs. Skelton's work has greatly outgrown the anticipated limits. Her researches in the Record Office, the India Office, and elsewhere, have brought together an amount of genealogical as well as naval and military information, which Mr. Bulloch thinks would be of interest, especially in view of the Territorial Army Scheme, to a wider circle than the New Spalding Club. He is in hopes of being in a position to undertake the printing of a special volume, copies of which would be supplied to members at a cost to the Club of only the necessary paper and binding. The title would be The Gordons under Arms; but the Club copies would count as Volume III. of the House of Gordon. The volume would contain:—

- (i.) A preface, describing sources of information, a subject on which no existing book gives details, most of the papers involved being quite unknown even to antiquaries.
- (ii.) A chapter by Mr. Bulloch giving a sketch of all the regiments raised by the family of Gordon, but not trenching upon the already-published accounts of the Gordon Highlanders. This chapter would also contain a complete muster roll of the 900 recruits who were the first to join the Gordon Highlanders. Use has been made of the documents hitherto untouched in the possession of His Grace the Duke of Richmond and Gordon, Vice-President of the Club. These documents give a most interesting insight into the local conditions which faced the fourth Duke of Gordon in raising his four regiments between the years 1759 and 1794.

- (iii.) A biographical dictionary (by Mrs. Skelton) of every commissioned officer bearing the name of Gordon who has ever been in the British Army, giving his commissions and his origin so far as known. This list runs into something like 1,500 names.
- (iv.) A similar list (by Mrs. Skelton) of officers in the Navy.
- (v.) A similar list (by Mr. Bulloch) of officers in European armies.
- (vi.) A similar list (by Mr. Armistead Churchill Gordon) of officers in the American Army.
- (vii.) A list (by Mr. Bulloch) of all Gordons who joined the Jacobite cause.

A large portion of other two volumes is already printed off:—

III.—MISCELLANY OF THE NEW SPALDING CLUB. Vol. II., containing:—

- (i.) Summary of Fairs Prices in Aberdeenshire from 1603, with Lists of Jurors. By Mr. David Littlejohn, LL.D., who generously presents this fascicle to the members of the Club.
- (ii.) Baptism Registers of S. Paul's Episcopal Church, Aberdeen, from 1720 to 1793. Edited by Mr. A. Emslie Smith, Advocate.

(iii.) Roll of Burgesses of Aberdeen from 1631 to 1700 (continued from Miscellany, Vol. I.). Edited by Mr. A. M. Munro, City Chamberlain.

IV.—RECORDS OF ELGIN. Compiled by the late Mr. William Cramond, LL.D. Vol. II. Edited by the Rev. Stephen Ree, who kindly consented to arrange Dr. Cramond's collections and see the book through the press. Mr. Ree reports that the amount of interesting material is very great and will with difficulty be compressed into a second volume.

The programme of the Club also includes the following works approved by the Council :—

V.—MUSA LATINA ABERDONENSIS. Vol. III.: Poetae minores. Edited by Mr. William Keith Leask. Mr. Leask reports that his transcripts are now practically complete. He has followed the method of arrangement adopted in Vols. I. and II.—introduction, argument, text, notes. The selection of material extends from John Vaus and Florence Wilson—through the Wedderburns (David and William), the Johnstons (John and William), the Leeches (John the Rector and David the Sub-Principal), the Lachrymae of 1623 and 1635, the Donaides and Frasereides of John Ker—down to William Meston, the last verses in the volume being dated 1744. Three-fourths of the text will afford fresh material for local academic history.

VI.—SELECTIONS FROM THE RECORDS OF THE COUNTY OF BANFF. Edited by Mr. James Grant, LL.B. Mr. Grant reports that a considerable quantity of transcripts has been made from the Registers of Sasines, and from the Minute Books of the Freeholders and of the Commissioners of Supply. He suggests that many interesting portraits of Freeholders of old days might be reproduced.

- VII.—FOLK MUSIC OF THE NORTH-EAST OF SCOTLAND. Edited by Mr. Gavin Greig, Whitehill, and the Rev. J. B. Duncan, B.D., Lynturk, with the aid of a grant from the Carnegie Trust. Mr. Greig reports that the Editors have already made over 2,000 records of airs (in different versions) as a rule taken down from the lips of singers; together with many thousand lines of associated traditional verse. The final work of reduction must necessarily take some time.
- VIII.—RECORDS OF INVERNESS. Edited by Mr. William Mackay, Solicitor. Vol. I. to deal with the Burgh Charters from William the Lion onwards, and the Burgh Court-books from the middle of the sixteenth century.
- IX.—RECORDS OF OLD ABERDEEN. Edited by Mr. A. M. Munro. Vol. II. to deal with the Ecclesiastical Records—Kirk-Session, etc.
- X.—RECORDS OF THE SCOTS COLLEGES. Vol. II. Edited by the Rev. W. Forbes Leith, S.J.
- XI.—THE RISE OF NATURAL SCIENCE IN THE NORTH OF SCOTLAND, based on the MS. collections of David Skene, M.D. Edited by Prof. J. W. H. Trail.
- XII.—THE HOUSE OF FORBES. To be compiled by contributors making themselves individually responsible for the treatment of different branches of the family. General Editor: Colonel Allardyce, LL.D.
- XIII.—BIBLIOGRAPHY OF THE SHIRES OF ABERDEEN, BANFF

AND KINCARDINE. Compiled by Mr. J. F. Kellas
Johnstone, and others.

XIV.—RECORDS OF THE RED, WHITE, BLACK AND GREY FRIARS OF ABERDEEN. 1211-1560. To be edited by the Secretary of the Club, who has been accorded a grant by the Carnegie Trust to promote his researches.

Professor Terry has suggested that a Club volume, supplementary to his Albemarle Papers, might be based on official documents in the Public Record Office, which throw light on the state of Scotland between the years 1748 and 1760, a period not abundantly documented at present, after which Jacobitism abandoned all idea of an active propaganda. The Council are glad to note the prospect of another book under Professor Terry's editorship.

The Committee have had under examination two interesting Registers of baptisms—of Roman Catholics in Braemar from 1703 to 1736, and of Episcopalians in Deer from 1681 onwards. The Council believe that these contain many entries of much genealogical importance.

When the New Spalding Club was founded, twenty-one years ago, the Council recognised that the Club should for some time live well within its income, so as to provide a reserve fund to enable the Council to meet any contingencies that might arise in the future. For a few years past the additions to the reserve have been abnormally great owing to delays in the completion of certain works on the Club's programme. Now, however, that the Club has reached its majority, the Council believe that this accumulation should cease, and that the members who have adhered to the Club should reap the benefit. During the year 1907 more than 1000 printed pages were distributed to members, and the year's expenditure (after deduction of the cost of paper in stock) exceeds the year's income by upwards of £100.

Since the last report was submitted by the Council, eleven members of the Club have died: Mr. James W. Barclay of Glenbuchat; Mr. Charles M. Brown, Inverness; Mr. William Cramond, LL.D., an original Member of the Club and of its Council, and for many years also a Member of the Executive Committee, whose monumental works the Annals of Banff and the Records of Elgin helped greatly to establish the reputation of the Club; General Sir John Forbes, G.C.B., of Inverernan; Mr. Alexander Fowlie, Inverurie; Sir George Macpherson Grant, Bart., of Ballindalloch; Mr. Thomas Hutchison, Cults; Miss Georgina Leith, of Freefield; Emeritus Professor David Masson, LL.D., an original Member of the Club, and for many years one of its Vice-Presidents; Mr. John Morgan, Aberdeen; Mr. John Paul, Kingston, Ontario.

The places rendered vacant by some of these deaths have, under Rule 9, been filled by representatives of the deceased members, but other vacancies allow the admission of new members. As new members are usually desirous of securing a full set of the Club's publications, it may be stated that although the earlier issues are entirely out of print (as indicated on pp. 15, 16), the volumes occasionally come into the market, and the Secretary can usually direct a new member to a source whence they may be obtained.

The Council wish to express their continued obligation to the Society of Advocates for permitting the Annual General Meeting of the Club to be held in the Society's Hall; and to the Curator of the University Library for granting the use of a room for Committee meetings.

RULES OF THE NEW SPALDING CLUB.

(As approved 11th November, 1886, and amended 16th December, 1886, 21st December, 1894, and 29th December, 1897.)

1. The objects of the New Spalding Club shall be to promote the study of the History, Topography, and Archæology of the North-eastern Counties of Scotland, and to print works illustrative thereof.
2. The Club shall consist of five hundred [16th Dec., 1886] members, subscribers of one guinea annually: each subscription to be paid on or before the first day of January in each year.
3. The general management of the affairs of the Club shall be vested in a Council, consisting of a President, at least ten Vice-Presidents, and not fewer than forty ordinary members, including a Secretary and a Treasurer: all to be chosen yearly at a General Meeting of the Club, to be held at Aberdeen, in the Month of October, or at such other time within each year as may be found convenient. At all Meetings of the Council seven members shall form a quorum.
4. Immediately after the Annual General Meeting the Council shall elect Acting Committees to carry on the work of the Club.
5. The accounts of the Club shall be audited annually, by two Auditors, to be chosen at the Annual Meeting from among the members.
6. The name of any member in arrear with his annual subscription on the first day of October in each year may be removed from the list of members.
7. Vacancies in the membership shall be filled up according to priority of application.
8. Members may, at any time, compound for all future annual subscriptions, by payment of ten guineas over and above the subscription for the current year; and it shall be in the power of the Council to exempt from subscriptions, annual or other, any member who may present to the Club a work, the printing of which, as a Club publication, has been sanctioned by the Council.
9. Every member shall receive one copy of every volume assigned by the Club to the years for which he has paid subscriptions; and the editor of each work shall receive five additional copies of his work. [The heir, executor or representative of a member shall have no claim to volumes issued by the Club after the member's death, unless he be admitted a member of the Club in place of the deceased. 21st Dec., 1894.]

10. The number of copies printed in each case shall not exceed five hundred and twenty-five, and no copy of any work printed by the Club shall be offered by it for sale; [but it shall be competent for the Editorial Committee to arrange for extra copies not exceeding twenty-five, additional to the five hundred and twenty-five, of any volume considered appropriate, to be placed at the disposal of the University of Aberdeen, which shall refund to the Club the prime cost of such extra copies, and employ them, outwith the bounds of the United Kingdom, as a part of a series of inter-academical publications. 29th Dec., 1897.]
11. The Club shall undertake the issue of its books without the intervention of publishers or booksellers.
12. A General Meeting of the Club may be called at any time on presentation to the Secretary of a requisition signed by twenty members; and the above rules may be altered at any General Meeting, provided that the members have received from the Secretary at least fourteen days' notice of the proposed change.
